

Match each career to their brief description

Job title	Description
	Takes a look at an organisation's finances and assesses how much risk a lender will take on if they decide to give you a loan.
	Checks organisations' financial records and procedures to make sure they are accurate and efficient.
	Trained experts who solve complex business problems and devise invaluable strategies.
	Create and maintain a favourable public image for their employer or client.
	Plans how to promote products, services, or brands, using advertisements, email campaigns, social media and events
	Helps businesses make critical financial decisions by collecting, tracking, and correcting the company's finances.
	Builds relationships with customers, suppliers, and partners to help businesses grow and improve.
	Helps stock market traders, stockbrokers and fund managers make decisions about investments.
	Carry out support tasks for individuals and managers including administration, diary management and event planning.

Personal assistant

Business development
manager

Investment analyst

Management consultant

Marketing manager

PR manager

Accountant

Auditor

PR manager